

FORMAT AND PARTICIPANTS IN THE JUNE 18, 2016
ARCHAEOLOGY CONFERENCE AT DEERFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS

Sponsored by Western Chapter of the Massachusetts Archaeological Society and Eaglebrook School, Old Deerfield, Massachusetts

“Glacial Lake Hitchcock and Its Primal Inhabitants”

Conference Registration at Eaglebrook School: 7:30 – 9:00 AM

- IntroductionDavid Bosse
- Welcome to Eaglebrook School.....Andrew Chase, Headmaster
- 9:15 Introduction of Keynote Speaker.....David “Bud” Driver
- 9:20 - 9:50 “Geology of the Connecticut River Valley”.....Richard Little
- 9:50- 10:15 “Lithic Resources Used During Early Prehistory”.....Barbara Calogero
- 10:15 - 10:30 Break for coffee and refreshments
- 10:30 - 11:00 The Palaeo-American Cultural Sequence”.....Richard Gramly
- 11:00 - 11:30 “What a Single Discovery of a Palaeo-American
Artifact Might Mean.....Richard Gramly
- 11:30 - 12:00 “The Bowser Road Mastodon Site and its Implications
For the Lake Hitchcock Region”.....Dennis Vesper and Richard Gramley
- 12:00 - 12:30 Comments and questions from the audience.....Moderator, John Lothrop
- 12:30 - 1:30 Lunch at the dining facility and review of publications and artifacts
- 1:30 - 2:30 “Riverside Archaeological District and Changes in the Valley’s Geomorphology Following the Draining of Lake Hitchcock”.....Peter Thomas
- 2:30 - 3:00 “Mapping Lake Hitchcock”.....Lester Garvin
- 3:00 - 3:15 Break for review of artifacts, publications and maps
- 3:15 - 3:45 “Potential Utility of Lake Hitchcock Data for Identifying Cultural Resources.....Stuart Fidel
- 3:45 - 4:30 Comments and questions from the audience.....Moderator, John Lothrop
- Exhibits of publications, artifacts and maps. The conference adjourns.

